Motion for New Trial Overruled and Appeal Is Taken.

Sentenced to spend the remainder of his life in the state penitentlary. John June 17, last, of E. Kohlberg, was taken back to the county jail Wednesday morning, there to await the out-ome of the appeal in his behalf to the court of criminal appeals. Without a tremor, Leech heard the overruling of the motions asking for stock in good faith and that there is standstill, the local management a new trial and the arrest of judgment. and then, in answer to the question of judge Clarke for any reason why sentence should not be pronounced, Leech

"Nothing at all." After the reading of the judgment, eech again stated:

"I say there is nothing."

Unable to control her emotions, Mrs. Leech, who accompanied her husband in the court room Wednesday morning broke down and cried when the prison sentence was pronounced on her husband. She was still crying when Leech was taken back to the county jail by deputy sheriff W. D. Greet. Leech , when he stood up to hear the reading of the sentence, showed not the slightest feeling. The smile was still on his face. When his wife began crying, he turned around and touched S. H. Newman.

her on the arm. The Sentence. The sentence of judge Clarke, as pronounced by him Wednesday morang, is as follows:

"It is the order of the court that you, SELECT DANCING ASSEMBLY, been adjudged to be guilty of murder McClimock on a charge of receiving FRATERNAL BROTHERHOOD HALL, ment has been assembly been adjudged to be guilty of murder and concealing stolen are entirely been assembly. of the jury at confinement in the state penitentiary for life, be delivered by the sheriff of El Paso county, Texas, immediately to the superintendent of the penitentiaries of the state of Texas. or other person legally authorized to receive such convicts, and you, the said is asked for the title to land near John Leech, shall be confined in said Canutillo. official in police court, was burelarized penitentiaries for life in accordance with the provisions of the law governpenitentiaries of had time to ascertain the extent of his state, and you, the defendant, remanded to jail, until said sheriff can obey the directions of this sentence."

Upon the notice of appeal being given, judge Clarke announced: "It is the further order of the court that the aforesaid sentence be suspended pending the appeal notice of which has been heretofore given by the defendant, John Leech, in open court. Objections Raised.

The sentencing of Leech Wednesday norning following the filing late Tuesday afternoon of the amended motion of his attorneys asking for a new trial and the arrest of judgment. The motion included 34 paragraphs, the ma-El jority of which are devoted to the alleged improper remarks of the state's result of a complaint of assault pre- sale by all dealers.
